PREAMBLE

We hereby draw up and establish the following constitution and by-laws, to supersede all other constitutions and by-laws in order that our church may operate and function in a Christ-like manner.

ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of this church shall be known as the First Baptist Church of Macon, North Rutherford and Daugherty Streets, Macon, Missouri.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSE

The purpose of this church is to advance the Kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, in this community and throughout the world. Under divine guidance of the Holy Spirit and following New Testament church patterns, this church shall prayerfully seek to attain its purpose through worship, proclamation of the gospel, personal evangelism and missionary activities, Christian education and training, fellowship, consistent Christian living of members, and by each member’s humble service and ministry to the needs of all in Christ’s name.

ARTICLE III – ARTICLES OF FAITH AND ORDINANCE

The Holy Bible is the full and final authority for all our doctrines, beliefs, and practices. We accept the formulated statement approved by the Southern Baptist Convention in 1963, entitled, The Baptist Faith and Message. (See attached Appendix I, The Baptist Faith and Message.)

In the regard to the taking of the Lord’s Supper, each individual, whether a member or not, shall examine himself before partaking.

ARTICLE I - NAME

The name of this church shall be known as the First Baptist Church of Macon, 302 North Rutherford Street, Macon, Missouri.

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE

The purpose of this church is to glorify God by making disciples of all nations. Beginning in Macon and stretching to the unreached peoples of the earth we will seek to make disciples by going to them with the gospel of Jesus Christ, baptizing them in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, and teaching them to observe everything Jesus commanded.

Under divine guidance of the Holy Spirit and following New Testament church patterns, this church shall prayerfully seek to attain its purpose through worship, proclamation of the gospel, personal evangelism and missionary activities, Christian education and training, fellowship, consistent Christian living of members, and by each member's humble service and ministry to the needs of all in Christ's name.

ARTICLE III - ARTICLES OF FAITH AND ORDINANCE

The Holy Bible is the full and final authority for all our doctrines, beliefs, and practices. We accept the formulated statement approved by the Southern Baptist Convention in 2000, entitled, The Baptist Faith and Message 2000. (These booklets are available to every member through the church office.) We band ourselves together as a body of baptized believers in Jesus Christ personally committed to sharing the gospel of Jesus Christ to lost humanity.
ARTICLE IV – CHURCH COVENANT

(The covenant generally accepted by Southern Baptists.)

Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Savior, and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, we do now in the presence of God, angels, and this assembly most solemnly and joyfully enter in covenant with one another, as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church, in knowledge, holiness and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline and doctrines; the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the Gospel throughout all nations.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotions; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting, and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale and use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage, and to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Savior.

We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love; to remember each other in prayer, to aid each other in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation and mindful of the rules of our Savior to secure it without delay.

The ordinances of the church are baptism by immersion upon a profession of faith and the Lord’s Supper. In the regard to the taking of the Lord’s Supper, each individual, whether a member or not, shall be a baptized believer and shall examine himself with a repentant heart before partaking.

ARTICLE IV - CHURCH COVENANT

Having, as we trust, been brought by Divine Grace to repent and believe in the Lord Jesus Christ and to give up ourselves to Him, and having been baptized upon our profession of faith, in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, we do now, relying on His gracious aid, solemnly and joyfully renew our covenant with each other.

We will work and pray for the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

We will walk together in brotherly love, as becomes the members of a Christian Church; exercise an affectionate care and watchfulness over each other and faithfully admonish and entreat one another as occasion may require.

We will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together, nor neglect to pray for ourselves and others.

We will endeavor to bring up such as may at any time be under our care, in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, and by a pure and loving example to seek the salvation of our family and friends.

We will rejoice at each other’s happiness, and endeavor with tenderness and sympathy to bear each other’s burdens and sorrows.

We will seek, by Divine aid, to live carefully in the world, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, and remembering that, as we have been voluntarily buried by baptism and raised again from the symbolic grave, so there is on us a special obligation now to lead a new and holy life.
We moreover engage that when we remove from this place, we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other church, where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God’s Word.

ARTICLE V – CHARACTER

The government of this church is vested in the body of believers who compose it. It is subject to the control of no other ecclesiastical body, but it recognizes and sustains the obligations of mutual counsel and cooperation which are common among Baptist Churches. This church shall be affiliated with the Macon Baptist Association, Missouri Baptist Convention, and the Southern Baptist Convention or their successors. Its leaders shall lead the church to support the missionary endeavors of these organizations and in so far as practical the various programs of activity promoted by these groups, shall be promoted in our church.

We will work together for the continuance of a faithful evangelical ministry in this church, as we sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrines. We will contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expenses of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the Gospel to all nations.

We will, when we move from this place, as soon as possible, unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God’s Word.

May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all. Amen.

5 Reasons Why Church Membership is Important

Our Culture and the Church
- The culture currently trends toward consumerism, not commitment.
- Consumerism causes people to date the church, when God wants you to marry the church.
- Church membership calls you to give your life away to the local church.

Reason 1: Church Membership Is Implied in Church Gatherings
The New Testament has no category for people calling themselves Christians and not connected to a local expression of the church.

Reason 2: Church Membership Is Implied in Church Discipline
1 Corinthians 5:1-2; 1 Corinthians 5:9-13

Reason 3: Church Membership Is Implied with Church Leadership
Hebrews 13:17; 1 Peter 5:1-2

Reason 4: Church Membership Is Implied in Record Keeping
Acts 2 – numerical record
1 Timothy 5 – a record of widows
Acts 6 – there were elections
Hebrews 13 – accountability
Romans 16:1-16 – an awareness of who the church members are

Reason 5: Church Membership Is Implied by The Body
1 Corinthians 12:12-20

Candidates wishing to become members must follow these steps:
1. Read the Constitution of the Church
3. Attend a membership interview with one of the pastors.
4. Read and sign, without any reservations, the membership covenant.
5. Provide testimony of their conversion and desire to join themselves in membership to First Baptist Church of Macon, Missouri through verbal, video, or written form.

Candidates for membership will then be voted on during the church’s Family Meeting. A majority vote of those members present shall be required to affirm and accept such candidates to membership.

Membership Covenant:
I, the undersigned, hereby do declare of my own accord and without reservation that I agree with the following and covenant with the existing Body of Believers of First Baptist Church of Macon, Missouri to the same.

1. I have read and agree with the Constitution & By-Laws of the Church.
2. I have read and agree with The Baptist Faith and Message 2000.
3. I covenant to fully support the ministry of First Baptist Church of Macon, Missouri through my attendance, giving, prayers, and service.
4. I covenant to live a holy life submitting my daily life to the authority of the Word of God found in the Bible.
5. I covenant to intentionally build relationships with the other members of First Baptist Church of Macon, Missouri, seeking to encourage and hold them accountable, as I expect them to do with me.
6. Recognizing that I am still sinful and that it is possible that I would, in the future, engage in sin, become disorderly, or in some way begin to bring shame on the Church, I submit myself to the authority of this Church and any discipline it would deem necessary.
7. I covenant to submit to support the pastors and other recognized leaders of the Church.
8. I covenant to seek to preserve the unity of this body. If I ever find that I can no longer in good conscience stand in unity, I further covenant to withdraw myself from membership at First

3. The Deacon Body will organize itself into special committees (such as ministry teams) to serve the Church in special areas. It shall be the responsibility of the Chairman of the Deacons to see that the deacons meet their responsibilities.

4. In accordance with the meaning of the work and practice of the New Testament, deacons are servants of the Church. The task of the deacon is to serve with the Pastors in ministering to the physical needs of the church in order for the pastors to more fully devote themselves to the ministry of the Word and prayer.

The following Deacon Covenant will be pledged to and followed by all active deacons:

1. I pledge to walk with Christ above every other relationship and live daily for Him to the best of my ability.

2. I pledge to be faithful to the work and ministry of this church. I will be as faithful as I possibly can to all of the church-wide services and activities of the First Baptist Church of Macon.

3. I pledge to be a faithful steward with my finances for the work of God through this local church.

4. I pledge to support our Lead Pastor and Pastoral Staff. If I ever have a problem with one of our pastors I will address the issue with him personally. If the issue persists, then I will, along with two or three brothers on the Deacon Body, go to the Pastor. If the problem further persists, then we will take it to the entire Deacon Body for resolution.
5. We pledge to be faithful to our families. We understand that God comes first, then our families, then the ministry we have as deacons.
6. We pledge to be faithful to the monthly Deacons’ Meeting and to the deacons as a brotherhood. We will hold in confidence the things we talk and pray about. We commit to our fellow deacons, as a brother, to lift them up in prayer and support. We further pledge to work on developing close relationships with the Deacon Body realizing that we need each other. We further make ourselves accountable to the Pastor and our deacon brothers. By doing this we invite our brother to talk to us if there is ever a concern about our spiritual life or acts of service. If we cannot be in attendance at a Deacons’ Meeting, we will make a reasonable attempt to contact the Deacon Chairman, the Pastor, or another deacon to inform them we won’t be in attendance.

The Ministry of the Deacon
By Howard Foshee

The author of the study course book lists seven requirements of a deacon:

1. Christian Purpose – “Likewise must the deacons be grave” (I Timothy 3:8). Paul sought to indicate that a deacon should possess Christian purpose. Persons coming into a deacon’s presence should see his reverence for spiritual matters.

2. Spiritual Integrity – “Holding the mystery of faith in a pure conscience” (I Timothy 3:9). Sound doctrinal conviction should characterize a deacon. His spiritual integrity is beyond reproach. He is firm in his convictions.

3. Proved Spiritual Maturity – “Let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless” (I Timothy 3:10). Paul advised that a man should demonstrate his spiritual qualifications before being elected to serve as a deacon.

4. Christian Family Life – “Let the deacons be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own house” (I Timothy 3:12).

5. Honest in Speech – “Not double-tongued” (I Timothy 3:8). A deacon should be in control of his tongue. He should speak out for righteous causes. Gossip, tale-bearing, idle talking and slander are not a part of his nature.

6. Temperate in Living – “Not given to much wine” (I Timothy 3:8). Paul spoke forth boldly that Christians must be stewards of good influence (I Cor. 10:31). Every deacon will be under surveillance by non-Christians. Deacons today should abstain from the use and sale of alcoholic beverages. His life should be... free from any excesses that would injure him and his family and make his witness ineffective.

7. Steward of Possessions – “Not greedy of filthy lucre” (I Timothy 3:8). Rather than being one who has an obsession for material possessions, a deacon should be motivated to do the will of God.

SECTION 5 – Moderator

The presiding officer at any business meeting shall be the moderator. The moderator shall be the chairman of the Body of Deacons. In the absence of both the chairman and assistant chairman, the moderator shall be selected by the chairman.
